At Law No. 4252-C

GALEN H. WELCH, Collector of Internal Revenue, for the Sixth Collection District of California, COMPLAINT

Defendant.

NOW COMES the plaintiff, The St. Helens Petroleum Company, Ltd., a corporation, and through its attorneys complains of the defendant, Galen H. Welch, and as and for a cause of action against said defendant alleges:

I.

That the plaintiff, The St. Helens Petroleum Company, Ltd., is and was at all times hereinafter mentioned, a corporation organized under the laws of Great Britain, and having its principal office and place of business at Los Angeles, California.

II.

That the jurisdiction of this court is dependent upon a Federal question in that the cause arises under the laws of the United States of America pertaining to internal revenue, to-wit, the Revenue Act of 1921 and subsequent Acts.

III.

That the defendant, Galen H. Welch, is now and has been since April 6, 1926, the Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth Collection District of California, duly commissioned and acting pursuant to the laws of the United States, and resides and has his office in the City of Los Angeles, in the said State of California.

IV.

That this action is brought against the defendant as an officer acting under and by virtue of the Revenue Act of 1921 and later Revenue Acts, on account of acts done under color of his office, and of the Revenue Laws of the United States as will hereinafter more fully appear.

V.

That the plaintiff duly filed with the proper officer designated by statute, its original and amended corporation income tax returns for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, as required by law and within the periods prescribed by law, that is, on to-wit, August 15, 1921, November 24, 1922, October 22, 1923, and November 14, 1923.

VI.

That the plaintiff duly paid to the Acting Collector of Internal Revenue taxes shown to be due on said returns for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, in the total amount of $418,292.95.

VII.

That thereafter, on March 11, 1929, the defendant, Galen H. Welch, as Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth Collection District of California, exacted from plaintiff the payment under protest and duress of an additional amount of $275,202.52, on account of said income tax returns for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, together with interest in the amount of $116,454.01. Plaintiff has paid on account of said returns a total amount of $693,495.47, together with interest in the amount of $116,454.01.

VIII.

On May 3, 1930, plaintiff filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, through the defendant as Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth Collection District of California, a claim for refund in the amount of $50,000.00, setting forth errors of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the defendant in the computation of plaintiff's taxes for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, setting forth as the reasons for said claim the following:

"1. The Commissioner made a mathematical error of $12,000.00 in determining the total depletion allowance for this year. The depletion schedules attached to the Department's letter of November 7, 1928 (symbols: IT: FAR: SM-60D: LMS-28935-C-28938-A-28936-D-28939-B-28937-E-28940) show the following amounts of 'depletion sustained':

Anaheim	Lease	$9,423.00
Anderson	· do	2,770.25
Johnson	do	3,674.00
Edwardson	do	214.07
King	do	50,222.28
Schultz	do	96.96
Eggleston-Taylor	do	40,636.17
Nutt	do	998.70
Piuma-Briana	do	1,972.88
McLeod	do	512,561.23
Monterey	do	2,355.63

Total depletion sustained

$624,925.17

"The Unit inadvertently carried these amounts into the income computation, Schedule 11(d), at a total of $612,925.17, thereby understating the deductions and overstating the net income in an amount of $12,000.00.

- "2. The Commissioner's allowance for Depreciation on Wells is erroneous due to the allowance of only $4,875.49 on the Nutt Lease as against the correct amount of $11,479.90, as shown in Form O, Schedule VI. The difference arises from the failure to consider the investment of $66,132.15 at the beginning of the taxable year, the Department's depreciation schedule taking cognizance only of the $48,819.28 expenditures during the taxable year.
- "3. In the computation of net income, the Commissioner allowed 99.75 per cent of the British excess profits and corporation profits taxes accrued during the taxable year, based on the proportion of income from sources within the United States. However, the Commissioner has failed to allow as a deduction any part of the British income tax accrued against the corporation during the taxable year. Following the basis used by the Unit in the computation of the deduction for the British profits tax, this deduction would be as follows:

Income tax accrued	£ 11,258-14
at 3.70 in £	$ 41,657.19
99.75 per cent	$ 41,553.05

"Our contentions on this point have been fully set forth in various briefs heretofore filed with the Department."

IX.

That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has failed and refused to take any action with respect to said claim for refund filed May 3, 1930, to the time of filing this proceeding, and that more than six months have expired from the date of filing such claim without any decision by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue thereon. That the taxes covered by said claim for refund and this proceeding were paid within five years before this proceeding was begun.

Χ.

That the taxes heretofore collected from the plaintiff for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, are excessive to the extent of $18,116.43, for the reasons set forth in the claim for refund and heretofore presented to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, which are the same as the grounds set forth herein as the basis for this proceeding.

XI.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue made a mathematical error of $12,000.00 in determining the total depletion deduction for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921. The depletion schedules attached to the Department's letter of November 7, 1928 (symbols: IT:FAR:SM-60D:LMS-28935-C-28938-A-28936-D-28939-B-28937-E-28940) show the following amounts of "depletion sustained":

Anaheim	Lease	$ 9,423.00
Anderson	do	2,770.25
Johnson	do	3,674.00
Edwardson	do	214.07
King	do	50,222.28
Schultz	do	96.96
Eggleston-Taylor	do	40,636.17
Nutt	do	998.70
Piuma-Briano	do	1,972.88
McLeod	do	512,561.23
Monterey	do	2,355.63
Total depletion	sustained	$624,925.17

The Unit inadvertently carried these amounts into the income computation, Schedule 11(d), at a total of $612,-925.17, thereby understating the deductions and overstating the net income in an amount of $12,000.00.

XII.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has made an allowance for depreciation on wells with respect to the Nutt lease, of only $4,875.49, whereas the correct amount of said depreciation is $11,479.90. The difference arises from the failure to consider the investment of $66,132.15 at the beginning of the taxable year, the Commissioner's depreciation schedule taking cognizance only of $48,819.28 expenditures during the taxable year.

XIII.

During the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, plaintiff accrued and paid to the Government of Great Britain, an income tax in the amount of £11,258-14 Sterling, which, at the rate of $3.70, is the equivalent of $41,657.19 in United States currency. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has determined that the income of plaintiff from sources within the United States during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, was 99.75 per centum of the total net income of plaintiff. Accordingly, under Section 234 of the Revenue Act of 1921, plaintiff is entitled to a total deduction on account of said British income taxes of 99.75 per centum of $41,657.19, or a net amount of $41,553.05. In determining the taxes heretofore paid by the plaintiff for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has not allowed any deduction on account of said British income taxes.

XIV.

That the defendant erroneously and illegally collected from the plaintiff and is erroneously and illegally with-holding from plaintiff and is indebted to said plaintiff in the total amount of $25,782.58 representing additional tax collected on March 11, 1929, in the amount of $18,116.43, and interest on said sum in the amount of $7,666.15, illegally exacted from plaintiff on March 11, 1929, on account of income taxes for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, together with interest thereon as provided by law.

· XV.

That although often demanded the defendant has not nor has anyone on his behalf repaid or refunded said sum or sums or any part thereof, and said claim of said plaintiff herein is the sole property of plaintiff and has not been sold or assigned or transferred to any person or individual.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for judgment against the defendant, Galen H. Welch, in the amount of $25,-782.58, together with interest at 6 per centum from March 11, 1929, as provided by law.

[TITLE OF COURT AND CAUSE.]

SPECIAL FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLU-SIONS OF LAW.

The above case came on regularly for trial on the 28th day of April, 1931, before the Court, sitting without a jury, a trial by jury having been waived by written stipulation of the parties thereto; plaintiff appearing by Joseph D. Peeler and Melvin D. Wilson, Esqs., and Miller, Chevalier, Peeler & Wilson, its attorneys, and the defendant appearing by Samuel W. McNabb, Esq., United States Attorney for the Southern District of California, Ignatius F. Parker, Esq., Assistant United States Attorney for said District, C. M. Charest, Esq., General Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue, and Richard W. Wilson, Esq. Special Attorney, Bureau of Internal Revenue; and evidence, both oral and documentary, having been received and the Court having fully considered the same, hereby makes the following special findings of fact:

I.

The Court finds that the plaintiff, The St. Helens Petroleum Co. Ltd. is and was at all times hereinafter mentioned, a corporation organized under the laws of Great Britain, and having its principal office and place of business at Los Angeles, California.

II.

That the plaintiff filed with Rex B. Goodcell, the then Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth Collection District of California, its original and amended corporation income tax returns for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, on, to-wit, August 15, 1921, November 24, 1922, October 22, 1923, and November 14, 1923.

III.

That the plaintiff paid to said Rex B. Goodcell, as Collector of Internal Revenue, the taxes shown to be due on said returns, in the total amount of $418,292.95.

IV.

That thereafter, the plaintiff paid to the defendant, Galen H. Welch, as Collector of Internal Revenue, upon demand, an additional tax of $275,202.52 on account of said income tax returns for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, together with interest in the amount of $116,454.01, or a total of $391,656.53. That said payments were made by a credit in the amount of $361,872.74 on January 22, 1929, and by $29,783.79 in cash on March 11, 1929.

V.

That on May 3, 1930, plaintiff filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue a claim for refund of taxes paid for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, in the manner and form provided by law, covering the issues raised in the complaint herein.

VI.

That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue failed to take any action with respect to said claim for refund; that more than six months elapsed from the date said claim was filed before this proceeding was commenced, and that the taxes covered by said claim for refund and this proceeding were paid within five years before this proceeding was begun.

VII.

That plaintiff is entitled to a further deduction for oil depletion in the amount of $12,000.00 for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921.

VIII.

That plaintiff is entitled to a further deduction for depreciation on wells, with respect to the Nutt Lease, in the amount of $6,604.41, for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921.

IX.

That during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, plaintiff accrued and paid to the Government of Great Britain, an income tax in the amount of £11,258-14 Sterling, which, at the rate of $3.70 was equivalent of $41,657.19 in United States currency. The income of plaintiff from sources within the United States during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, was 99.75 per centum of the total net income of plaintiff from all sources during said year. The amount of the British income tax allocable to United States income was $41,553.05. Plaintiff deducted from dividends paid by it to its stockholders during said fiscal year an amount of at least $41,553.05, on account of said British income taxes.

Χ.

That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has allowed no deduction on account of said British income taxes for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, and that no refund has been made to plaintiff of any taxes paid by it on its Federal income tax return for said fiscal year.

XI.

The taxable net income of the plaintiff for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, as determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, was $2,350,425.78. The profits tax of plaintiff for said fiscal year was determined under the provisions of Section 328, Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921, as follows:

Profits tax, Section 328 (1920 rates)	$568,803.04
Profits tax, Section 328 (1921 rates)	464,444.13
7/12 of $568,803.04	331,801.77
5/12 of $464,444.13	193,518.39

Total profits tax for fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, Section 328— $525,320.16

The income tax of plaintiff for said fiscal year was determined as follows:

Net income— $2,350,425.78

Less:

Interest on United States
obligations not exempt— $143,352.56
Profits tax— 525,320.16— 668,672.72
Amount taxable at 10%— $1,681,753.06
Income tax at 10%— $ 168,175.31

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

As a conclusion of law from the foregoing facts, the Court determines that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue erred in failing and refusing to allow to plaintiff deductions on its income tax return for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, in the amount of $12,000.00 for further depletion; in the amount of $6,604.41 for further depreciation on wells; and in the amount of $41,553.05 for income taxes accrued and paid to the Government of Great Britain, and in levying tax assessments on the basis of net income computed without the allowance of said deductions.

The Court determines that the defendant Galen H. Welch, erroneously and illegally collected from plaintiff the sum of $25,782.58, and that the plaintiff is entitled to recover from defendant the sum of $25,782.58, together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent from March 11, 1929, as provided by law.

That the plaintiff is also entitled to costs of suit herein.

That judgment be entered against the defendant accordingly.

JUDGMENT ON FINDINGS.

The above case came on regularly for trial on the 28th day of April, 1931, before the Court, sitting without a jury, a trial by jury having been waived by written stipulation of the parties thereto; plaintiff appearing by Joseph D. Peeler and Melvin D. Wilson, Esqs., and Miller, Chevalier, Peeler & Wilson, its attorneys, and the defendant appearing by Samuel W. McNabb, Esq., United States Attorney for the Southern District of California, Ignatius F. Parker, Esq., Assistant United States Attorney for said District, C. M. Charest, Esq., General

Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue, and Richard W. Wilson, Esq., Special Attorney, Bureau of Internal Revenue; and the trial having proceeded, and oral and documentary evidence on behalf of the respective parties having been submitted to the Court for consideration and decision, and the Court, after due deliberation, having rendered its decision and filed its findings and ordered that judgment be entered in favor of plaintiff in accordance with said findings;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the law, and by reason of the findings aforsaid, it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff have judgment in the amount of $25,782.58, together with interest at the rate of 6 per cent from March 11, 1929, as provided by law, with costs taxed at $20.00.

Judgment rendered this 17th day of November, 1933.

STIPULATION OF FACTS.

It is hereby stipulated and agreed by the parties plaintiff and defendant, in this action, by their respective counsel, that the following statements of fact are true and correct, and shall be accepted and used as agreed evidence in this case, provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent either party from introducing other and further evidence, not inconsistent herewith.

I.

That the plaintiff, The St. Helens Petroleum Company, Ltd. is and was at all times hereinafter mentioned, a corporation organized under the laws of Great Britain, and having its principal office and place of business at Los Anegeles, California.

That the plaintiff filed with Rex B. Goodcell, the then Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth Collection District of California, its original and amended corporation income tax returns for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, on, to-wit, August 15, 1921, November 24, 1922, October 22, 1923, and November 14, 1923.

III.

That the plaintiff paid to said Rex B. Goodcell, as Collector of Internal Revenue, the taxes shown to be due on said returns, in the total amount of $418,292.95.

IV.

That thereafter, the plaintiff paid to the defendant, Galen H. Welch, as Collector of Internal Revenue, upon demand, an additional tax of $275,202.52 on account of said income tax returns for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, together with interest in the amount of $116,454.01, or a total of $391,656.53. That said payments were made by a credit in the amount of $361,872.74 on January 22, 1929, and by $29,783.79 in cash on March 11, 1929.

V.

That on May 3, 1930, plaintiff filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue a claim for refund of taxes paid for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, in the manner and form shown by photostatic copy herewith, marked Exhibit No. 4.

VI.

That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has failed to take any action with respect to said claim for refund; that more than six months elapsed from the date said claim was filed before this proceeding was commenced, and that the taxes covered by said claim for refund and this proceeding were paid within five years before this proceeding was begun.

VII.

That plaintiff is entitled to a further deduction for oil depletion in the amount of $12,000.00 for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921.

VIII.

That plaintiff is entitled to a further deduction for depreciation on wells, with respect to the Nutt Lease, in the amount of $12,022.93, for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921.

IX.

That during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, plaintiff accrued and paid to the Government of Great Britain, an income tax in the amount of £11,258-14 Sterling, which, at the rate of $3.70 was the equivalent of $41,-657.19 in United States currency. That the income of plaintiff from sources within the United States during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1922, was 99.75 per centum of the total net income of plaintiff from all sources during said year. Plaintiff contends, and defendant denies, that plaintiff is entitled to a deduction, in determining its taxable net income, of the income taxes so accrued and paid to the Government of Great Britain; but it is agreed that if said taxes are deductible, the amount of said deduction for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, is $41,553.05. It is also stipulated that plaintiff deducted from the dividends paid by it to its stockholders during said fiscal year an amount of at least $41,553.05, on account of said British income taxes.

That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has allowed no deduction on account of said British income taxes for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, and that no refund has been made to plaintiff of any taxes paid by it on its Federal income tax return for said fiscal year.

(Testimony of A. P. McEachren)

A. P. McEACHREN,

a witness called on behalf of the plaintiff, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

I am local secretary for the Kern River Oilfields of California, Ltd. and the St. Helens Petroleum Co. Ltd. My duties are those of office manager and chief accountant. The books of these companies have been handled under my direct supervision from July 1919 to date. I am familiar with the oil lease called the Nutt Well No. 1. It comprises 20 acres located in the Montebello Field and was acquired on May 8, 1919. The capital expenditure on the one well that was drilled on that property from the date of acquisition to June 1, 1920, amounted to $66,-132.15. They were capital additions and not included in the revenue. They were depreciable assets. In auditing the returns of the St. Helens Petroleum Company for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, and 1922, respectively, the Government failed to allow a depreciation on account of those sums totaling $66,132.15, owing to inadvertence or error on the part of the Internal Revenue Agent, apparently, he overlooked the capital expenditures to Nutt Well No. 1 to May 31, 1920. He allowed depreciation to the capital additions from July 1, 1920. The period from June 1 to May 31st was a fiscal year adopted by the corporation. The figures I have given are from the books of the St. Helens Petroleum Co., Ltd. and are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Counsel for the respective parties thereupon entered into the following Stipulation in open Court: "MR. PEELER: There is just one thing I overlooked, and should have stated. This involves British cases and British law, and by agreement, we have not attempted to put into evidence the British law or the British cases. I don't know whether the court will take judicial notice of them automatically or not, but we would like to stipulate that the court may take judicial notice of the British law incorporated in the briefs of counsel.

"MR. WILSON: That is agreeable to the Government, your Honor.

"THE COURT: Very well"

These consolidated causes having under date of April 28, 1931 come before the Court for hearing, and having been ordered submitted on Stipulation of Facts filed and briefs to be filed, and briefs having been filed, and the Court having duly considered the matter, it is now by the Court ordered

"The question presented in this case is whether, in computing its net taxable income, a foreign corporation is entitled to deduct income taxes paid a foreign country when such taxes so paid were, as permitted by the laws of the foreign country, deducted from dividends paid to its stockholders. The Revenue Act applicable to the years involved in clear language allows such deduction, but the government maintains that since the corporation is empowered to deduct from the dividends payable to its stockholders the amount of such tax, it does not come within the meaning of the Revenue Act.

"I think the position of the government is not well-founded. The foreign corporation in the express language of the Revenue Act is entitled to a deduction of such payments and I regard as entirely incidental the circumstance that under the laws of the foreign country the corporation is entitled to credit to the tax so paid when it comes to paying dividends to its shareholders. The in-statute

terpretion sought by the government would change a / provision of a statute in which there is no ambiguity whatever. This may not be done. (Gould v. Gould, 245 U. S. 151).

"Judgment is therefore ordered in favor of the plaintiffs with exception to defendant."

Pursuant to a Motion to re-open the case for the admission of additional evidence, and the Order of the Court made on said Motion, the following Stipulation of Additional Facts was submitted to the Court

STIPULATION OF ADDITIONAL FACTS

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by the parties, plaintiff and defendant in these actions, by their respective counsel, that the following statements of fact are true and correct and shall be accepted and used as agreed evidence in these cases, in addition to the evidence heretofore presented to the Court.

I.

On November 7, 1928, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue issued a letter to the St. Helens Petroleum Company, Ltd., setting forth his final determination of its tax liability for the fiscal years ended May 31, 1917 to May 31, 1922, inclusive. A copy of said letter of November 7, 1928, is attached hereto, marked Exhibit A.

II.

It is stipulated that said letter of November 7, 1928, sets forth the final determinations by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, of the net income, income tax, and profits tax of the St. Helens Petroleum Company, Ltd., for the fiscal years ended May 31, 1921 and 1922; respectively, as well as the method and figures used in said determinations.

Nothing in this stipulation of facts is to be construed as an admission by the plaintiff that said determinations and computations of the net income, income tax or profits tax by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, for either of the fiscal years ended May 31, 1921 and May 31, 1922, respectively, are correct, insofar as they are inconsistent with the stipulation of facts heretofore introduced in these actions.

Office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Address Reply to Commissioner of Internal Revenue And refer to Nov. 7, 1928.

St. Helens Petroleum Company, Ltd., 1100 Chapman Building, Los Angeles, California. Sirs:

In accordance with Section 274 of the Revenue Act of 1926 you are advised that the determination of your tax liability for the fiscal years ended May 31, 1917 to May 31, 1922, inclusive, discloses a deficiency of $277, 368.73 for the fiscal years ended May 31, 1921 and May 31, 1922, and overassessments aggregating $412,333.38 for the fiscal years ended May 31, 1917 to May 31, 1920, inclusive as shown in the attached statement.

The section of the law above mentioned allows you to petition the United States Board of Tax Appeals within sixty days from the date of the mailing of this letter for a redetermination of your tax liability. However, if you acquiesce in this determination, you are requested to execute the enclosed Form 866 and forward both original and duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. Reference is made to your protest dated November 26, 1926, against the findings of the Bureau relative to the audit of your income and profits tax returns for the fiscal years ended May 31, 1917 to May 31, 1922, inclusive, as set forth in Bureau letter dated November 12, 1926.

After a careful examination and review of your protest and of the additional information submitted in conference held on January 21, 1927 and subsequent thereto, you are advised that the Bureau holds that the denial of your application for the assessment of your excess profits tax for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1917 under the provisions of Section 210 of the Revenue Act of 1917, is correct inasmuch as there has been disclosed no exceptional hardship evidenced by gross disproportion between the tax computed without the benefit of Section 210 and the tax computed by reference to the representative concerns specified in that Section.

Your profits tax liability for the fiscal years ended May 31, 1918 to May 31, 1922, inclusive, has been redetermined under the provisions of Sections 210 and 328 of the Revenue Acts of 1917, 1918 and 1921, respectively, based upon the additional information submitted.

SPECIAL FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

The above case came on regularly for trial on the 28th day of April, 1931, before the Court, sitting without a jury, a trial by jury having been waived by written stipulation of the parties thereto; plaintiff appearing by Joseph D. Peeler and Melvin D. Wilson, Esqs., and Miller, Chevalier, Peeler & Wilson, its attorneys, and the defendant appearing by Samuel W. McNabb, Esq., United States Attorney for the Southern District of California, Ignatius F. Parker, Esq., Assistant United States Attorney for said District, C. M. Charest, Esq., General Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue, and Richard W. Wilson, Esq.,

Special Attorney, Bureau of Internal Revenue; and evidence, both oral and documentary, having been received and the Court having fully considered the same, hereby makes the following special findings of fact:

I.

The Court finds that the plaintiff, The St. Helens Petroleum Co. Ltd. is and was at all times hereinafter mentioned, a corporation organized under the laws of Great Britain, and having its principal office and place of business at Los Angeles, California.

II.

That the plaintiff filed with Rex B. Goodcell, the then Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth Collection District of California, its original and amended corporation income tax returns for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, on, to-wit, August 15, 1921, November 24, 1922, October 22, 1923, and November 14, 1923.

III.

That the plaintiff paid to said Rex B. Goodcell, as Collector of Internal Revenue, the taxes shown to be due on said returns, in the total amount of $418,292.95.

IV.

That thereafter, the plaintiff paid to the defendant, Galen H. Welch, as Collector of Internal Revenue, upon demand, an additional tax of $275,202.52 on account of said income tax returns for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, together with interest in the amount of $116,454.01, or a total of $391,656.53. That said payments were made by a credit in the amount of $361,872.74 on January 22, 1929, and by $29,783.79 in cash on March 11, 1929.

V.

That on May 3, 1930, plaintiff filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue a claim for refund of taxes paid for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, in the manner and form provided by law, covering the issues raised in the complaint herein.

VI.

That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue failed to take any action with respect to said claim for refund; that more than six months elapsed from the date said claim was filed before this proceeding was commenced, and that the taxes covered by said claim for refund and this proceeding were paid within five years before this proceeding was begun.

VII.

That plaintiff is entitled to a further deduction for oil depletion in the amount of $12,000.00 for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921.

VIII.

That plaintiff is entitled to a further deduction for depreciation on wells, with respect to the Nutt Lease, in the amount of $6,604.41, for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921.

IX.

That during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, plaintiff accrued and paid to the Government of Great Britain, an income tax in the amount of £11,258-14 Sterling, which, at the rate of $3.70 was the equivalent of $41,-657.19 in United States currency. The income of plaintiff from sources within the United States during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, was 99.75 per centum of the total net income of plaintiff from all sources during said year. The amount of the British income tax allocable to United States income was $41,553.05. Plaintiff deducted from dividends paid by it to its stockholders during said fiscal year an amount of at least $41,553.05, on account of said British income taxes.

X.

That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has allowed no deduction on account of said British income taxes for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, and that no refund has been made to plaintiff of any taxes paid by it on its Federal income tax return for said fiscal year.

XI.

The taxable net income of the plaintiff for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, as determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, was $2,350,425.78. The profits tax of plaintiff for said fiscal year was determined under the provisions of Section 328, Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921, as follows:

Profits tax, Section 328 (1920 rates)	$568,803.04
Profits tax, Section 328 (1921 rates)	464,444.13
7/12 of $568,803.04	331,801.77
5/12 of $464,444.13	193,518.39

Total profits tax for fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, Section 328	$525,320.16

The income tax of plaintiff for said fiscal year was determined as follows:

Net income—

$2,350,425.78

Less:

Interest on United States obligations not exempt—
Profits tax—

$143,352.56 525,320.16—668,672.72

Amount taxable at 10%—Income tax at 10%—

$1,681,753.06 $ 168,175.31

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

As a conclusion of law from the foregoing facts, the Court determines that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue erred in failing and refusing to allow to plaintiff deductions on its income tax return for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, in the amount of $12,000.00 for further depletion; in the amount of $6,604.41 for further depletion on wells; and in the amount of $41,553.05 for income taxes accruel and paid to the Government of Great Britain, and in levying tax assessments on the basis of net income computed without the allowance of said deductions.

The Court determines that the defendant Galen H. Welch, erroneously and illegally collected from plaintiff the sum of $25,782.58, and that the plaintiff is entitled to recover from defendant the sum of $25,782.58, together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent from March 11, 1929, as provided by law.

That the plaintiff is also entitled to costs of suit herein. That judgment be entered against the defendant accordingly.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES IN AND FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA, CENTRAL DIVISION

THE ST. HELENS PETROLEUM
CO., LTD., a Corporation,	)
Plaintiff,	) )
vs.	) No. 4252-C
GALEN H. WELCH, Collector of	) ASSIGNMENT
Internal Revenue for the Sixth Collection District of California,
Defendant.	) )

The Defendant and Appellant above-named makes and files the following assignment of errors upon which he will rely in the prosecution of his appeal from the judgment of this Court entered herein on the 17th day of November, 1933.

I.

The Court erred in rendering judgment against the defendant and in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $25,-782.58, together with interest thereon and costs taxed in the sum of $20.00, in that the evidence introduced herein, the facts stipulated, and those facts established and found therefrom by the Court and the record in this cause are insufficient to support a judgment in favor of the plaintiff in said amount, or in any other sum, or at all.

The Court erred in rendering judgment for the plaintiff and against the defendant herein, for the reason that the evidence introduced and facts stipulated disclose that plaintiff is a corporation organized under the laws of Great Britain which, during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, accrued and paid to the Government of Great Britain an income tax equivalent to $41,657.19 in United States currency and that the plaintiff deducted from the dividends paid by it to its stockholders during said fiscal year an amount of at least $41,553.05 on account of said British income taxes.

III.

The Court erred in rendering judgment for the plaintiff and against the defendant herein for the reason that the facts found by the Court are insufficient to support a judgment for the plaintiff, the Court having found from the evidence introduced herein that

"I.

"the plaintiff, The St. Helens Petroleum Co. Ltd. is and was at all times hereinafter mentioned, a corporation organized under the laws of Great Britain, and having its principal office and place of business at Los Angeles, California.

"IX.

"That during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, plaintiff accrued and paid to the Government of Great Britain, an income tax in the amount of £11,258-14 Sterling, which, at the rate of $3.70 was the equivalent of $41,657.19 in United States currency. The income of plaintiff from sources within the United States during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, was 99.75 per centum of the total net income of plaintiff from all sources during said year. The amount of the British income tax allocable to United States income was $41,553.05. Plaintiff deducted from dividends paid by it to its stockholders during said fiscal year an amount of at least $41,553.05, on account of said British income taxes.

"X.

"That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has allowed no deduction on account of said British income taxes for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, and that no refund has been made to plaintiff of any taxes paid by it on its Federal income tax return for said fiscal year.

"XI.

"The taxable net income of the plaintiff for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, as determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, was $2,350,425.78. The profits tax of plaintiff for said fiscal year was determined under the provisions of Section 328, Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921, as follows:

Profits tax, Section 328 (1920 rates)	$568,803.04
Profits tax, Section 328 (1921 rates)	464,444.13
7/12 of $568,803.04	331,801.77
5/12 of $464,444.13	193,518.39

Total profits tax for fiscal year ended

May 31, 1921, Section 328— 525,320.16

The income tax of plaintiff for said fiscal year was determined as follows:

Net income— $2,350,425.78

Less:

Interest on United States
obligations not exempt— $143,352.56

Profits tax— 525,320.16— 668,672.72

Amount taxable at 10%— $1,681,753.06
Income tax at 10%— $ 168,175.31"

IV.

The Court erred in finding and concluding as a matter of law herein that any part of the amount of $41,657.19 accrued and paid by the plaintiff to the Government of Great Britain as an income tax during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, and deducted by plaintiff from dividends paid by it to its stockholders during said fiscal year was deductible from plaintiff's gross income for said year in computing the correct income tax due from it to the Government of the United States.

V.

The Court erred in refusing to adopt the Defendant's Proposed Finding of Fact number I, which reads as follows:

"I.

"That there was no substantial or sufficient evidence produced on behalf of the plaintiff upon which to support a judgment in its favor in the above-entitled action," for the reason that the record and the evidence in this case support and require said Proposed Finding of Fact.

VI.

The Court erred in refusing to adopt the Defendant's Proposed Finding of Fact number II, which reads as follows:

"II.

"The tax involved in this action was assessed under the provisions of Sections 327 and 328 of the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921 (40 Stat. 1092, 1093)", for the reason that the record and the evidence in this case disclose that the tax involved in this action was assessed under the provisions of Sections 327 and 328 of the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921.

VII.

The Court erred in refusing to adopt the Defendant's Proposed Conclusions of Law numbered I, II and III, which read as follows:

"I.

"That there was no substantial or sufficient evidence produced on behalf of the plaintiff upon which to support a judgment in its favor in the above-entitled action.

"II.

"That this Court has no jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action, the tax involved having been assessed under the provisions of Sections 327 and 328 of the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921 (40 Stat. 1092, 1093).

"III.

"That upon the law, the plaintiff is not entitled to recover any sum whatsoever from the defendant in the above-entitled cause." for the reason that the evidence introduced and the facts found by the Court in this action support and require the adoption of said Conclusions of Law and disclose that the Court is without power or jurisdiction to enter a judgment for the plaintiff herein.

VIII.

The Court erred in concluding as a matter of law that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue erred in failing and refusing to allow to plaintiff a deduction on its income tax return for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921, in the amount of $41,657.19 for income taxes accrued and paid to the Government of Great Britain, for the reason that the evidence introduced and the facts found therefrom by the Court disclose that the amount of $41,657.19 so paid by plaintiff was by it deducted from dividends paid by it to its stockholders during said fiscal year.

IX.

The Court erred in denying Defendant's Motion for Arrest of Judgment herein for the reason that the evidence introduced herein and the facts found therefrom by the Court disclose that plaintiff's income and profits taxes for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1921 were assessed under the "Special Assessment" provisions of Sections 327 and 328 of the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921, and the Court is without power or jurisdiction to recompute the tax determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The Court erred in holding that it had jurisdiction or power to review the determination of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the plaintiff's net income and the amount of income and profits tax due thereon for the taxable year ending May 31, 1921, for the reason that said net income and the tax due thereon were determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue under the "Special Assessment" provisions of Sections 327 and 328 of the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921 (40 Stat. 1092, 1093).

XI.

That the Court erred in denying the defendant's Motion for Arrest of Judgment herein for the reason that there was no substantial or sufficient evidence introduced in the case upon which to base a judgment for the plaintiff and the further reason that the Court had no jurisdiction or power to review the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in determining plaintiff's net income and the tax due thereon for the taxable year ending May 31, 1921, the tax having been determined and assessed under the "Special Assessment" provisions of Sections 327 and 328 of the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921 (40 Stat. 1092, 1093).

XII.

The Court erred in its Conclusions of Law for the reason that said Conclusions are not supported by the facts found by the Court herein.

XIII.

The Court erred in concluding as a matter of law that the defendant had illegally collected from the plaintiff the sum of $25,782.58 and that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment against the defendant for the following reasons: (1) That the Court was and is without power or jurisdiction to review the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in determining the plaintiff's net income and the tax due thereon for the taxable year ending May 31, 1921, the tax having been determined and assessed under the "Special Assessment" provisions of Sections 327 and 328 of the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921 (40 Stat. 1092, 1093); (2) That the tax, of which a refund is sought in this action, was determined, assessed, collected and paid as an excess profits tax within the meaning of sections 327 and 328 of the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921.

XIV.

The Court erred in adopting its Finding of Fact numbered X for the reason that the same is not supported by the evidence in that the evidence and pleadings disclose that plaintiff's income tax for the taxable year ending May 31, 1921, was not increased by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue but that the deficiency determined arose from additional excess profits tax determined by the Commissioner.
